Contents

About the Authors xv
Acknowledgements xvii
Introduction xxi

Chapter 1
How to Use This Book or “Taking a Stand” 25
I. How to Use This Book 25
II. Taking a Stand 26
   The Drift 26
   Why it is Useful to Know Your Drift 27
   How Can You Recognize Your Drift? 28
   Glossary of Terms 28
   The General Community Drift of Lawyers 31
Conclusion 32
Homework 33

Chapter 2
What Do You Want From This Book? Creating a Well-Formed Outcome 35
Why Read This Chapter? 35
Introduction 36
What Do You Want From This Book? 38
   1. What do I want? 40
   2. How will I know when I have what I want? (State it in Sensory-Terms.) 42
   3. Context—where, when, and with whom do I want it? 42
   4. Is my outcome a large global outcome or is it of manageable size? 43
5. What is the time frame for all of my outcomes?
6. Why do I want my outcomes?
7. Ecology
8. How will I get it? Action plan
  Define Your Action Plan
    a. What resources do I need?
    b. What resources do I have?
    c. What am I already doing to achieve my outcome?
    d. Future Pace
    e. What is your first step?
Homework

Chapter 3
Accountability—Your Keys to the Kingdom
Why Read This Chapter?
Introduction
What is Accountability?
  Accountable vs. Victim
  The Foundation to Sustainable Change
What Are My Choices?
The Accountability Process
  Neutrality—A Preliminary Piece
  Using the Process to Replicate Results You Want
The Deeper Level of Accountability-Looking for Patterns Based on Beliefs, Attitudes, and Assumptions (Steps Three and Four)
The Power of Language
Exercise
Payoffs and Prices for Accountability
Homework
  An Exercise—Learning to see Choices

Chapter 4
Are you Committed? (and If Not Why Not?)
Why Read This Chapter?
Introduction
What is Commitment?
How to Use this Tool
Personal Obstacles
The Process for Identifying and Moving Past Obstacles
Step One—Identify the Obstacle  87
Disempowerment  87
Story-Telling  88
The Analytic Dilemma  89
Wasted Energy  89
Other-Focus  89
Step Two—Where Else do I See this Obstacle Blocking My Progress?  90
Step Three—How do I Recognize this Obstacle?  91
Step Four—A Strategy for When the Obstacle Arises  91
Resourcefulness  92
Being MacGyver  93
Ways of Being Resourceful  94
1. Don’t reinvent the wheel  94
2. Leverage your network  94
   Start to make a list of people who are resources for you.  94
3. Learn everything you can about how to find information  95
4. Teach resourceful habits  95
Resourcefulness Self-Reflections  95
How to Access Resources  96
Thinking about your goal, answer the following questions:  96
Homework  98
Commitment  98
Personal Obstacles  98
Resourcefulness  99

Chapter 5
Values-Based Living  101
Why Read This Chapter?  101
Part I—Personal Values  103
How Values Affect Life Balance  103
Discovering Your Values  105
Define Your Values  108
Living in Balance  109
Making Decisions Based on Your Values  110
Part II—Determining Firm Values  112
1. Why Do you Want to Articulate Your Firm’s Values?  113
   a. As with personal decisions, firm decisions are easier to make when based on articulated values.  113
b. Values provide a measure of consistency within the firm.
c. A firm Values Statement allows individual attorneys and staff to determine if their values align with firm values.
d. The people who come together to create the firm’s Values Statement will have a greater level of ownership for firm activities, policies, procedures, management, and actions.

2. How to Discover and Articulate Your Firm’s Values
3. Now That you Have Them, What Will you do With Them?
4. What if Your Firm Does not Want to Talk About Values?

Homework
For Individuals
For the Firm

Chapter 6
The Case for Self-Maintenance
Why Read this Chapter?
Introduction
“Hear me now and believe me later...”
What is Self-Maintenance?
The Lawyer—An Owner’s Manual
1. Take Care of Your Physical Body
2. Take “Vacations”
   Taking Regular Breaks
   What Types of Breaks and How Long?
   What to do During Your Breaks
   Daily Breaks
   Weekly Breaks
   Self-Observation
   Introvert or extrovert?
3. Acknowledge Yourself
4. Practice Gratitude
5. Celebrate Even Small Accomplishments
   Celebration Ideas
6. Spend Meaningful Time Alone
7. Meditate
   Benefits of Meditation
   Physiological Benefits of Meditation
   Psychological Benefits of Meditation
   Spiritual Benefits of Meditation
8. Try Journaling
9. Read Inspiring Books
10. Change the Way You Think
11. Yoga
   Benefits of Yoga
12. Do Something for Yourself Morning and Night
13. Laugh
   Benefits of Laughter
   Creating Opportunities to Laugh
14. Be in Service
15. Stretch Your Comfort Zone
16. Leave your Work at Work
17. Keep a Dream Book
18. Be More Social
19. Cultivate your Spiritual Life
20. Cultivate Self-Growth
21. Manage your Stress
Trouble-Shooting—What Could Get in Your Way?
Homework

Chapter 7
Managing Your Time and Energy—A Different Way to Practice
Why Read this Chapter?
Introduction
Part I—Foundational Pieces
   Like Everything, We Start with Accountability
   Human Beings (Even Attorneys) Can Only do One Thing at a Time
   Be Present
Part II—Introducing a New Paradigm for Time Management
   The Old Paradigm
   A New Paradigm
      Starting with Self-Observation
      Overview of the New Paradigm
      1. Being a Fire Fighter—Where Many Attorneys Start
      2. Fireproofing—A Better Way to Spend Your Time
         Four Fireproofing Tools
      3. Eradicating Stray Sparks—Reducing and Eliminating Distractions and Interruptions
Three Steps to Eliminating Stray Sparks (Finding and Eliminating Distractions) 178
4. The Controlled Burn—Reducing and Eliminating Time-Wasters 183
   The “Controlled Burn” Means: 184
Part III—How to implement the New Paradigm 185
1. Use A Calendar 185
2. Prepare at the Beginning of Your Week 186
   What to Include in your Calendar 188
   (i.) Fireproofing 188
   (ii.) True Emergencies 188
   (iii.) Marketing 188
   (iv.) Staff and/or File Review Meetings 188
3. Prepare at the Beginning of Your Day 191
   Use a TO DO List 191
4. Close Down Your Day Effectively 192
   a. The Completion Assessment 193
   b. Acknowledge Yourself 194
   c. Celebrate Your Accomplishments 194
5. Learn to Delegate 196
   a. Evaluate if You Really are the One For the Job. 197
   b. Decide What and How Much to Delegate 197
   c. Determine the Frequency of the Task 198
   d. Be Clear! 198
   e. Trust Allah, but Tie Your Camel 198
   f. Use Your Staff Meetings 199
6. Create Systems 199
   Homework 200
   Time Management Tips [Appendix] 200

Chapter 8
Communication Skills for Lawyers 205
Why Read this Chapter? 205
Introduction 206
The Art of Listening 206
1. Stage One: Fully Focus on the Person Speaking 208
   a. Practice #1—Listen, and only listen, when someone is talking 208
   b. Practice #2—Give up the focus being about you 208
   c. Practice #3—Yours is not the only agenda 209
   d. Practice #4—Give up your attachments and your judgments 209
e. Practice #5—Don’t assess the other person’s values, beliefs, and agenda, which may be very different from your own 209
f. Practice #6—Know what distracts you and limit distractions 210
g. Practice #7—Don’t offer advice 210
2. Stage Two: Be Curious About What the Other Person Is Saying 210
3. Stage Three: Listen Reflectively
   1. Fully focus on your speaker. Listen without judgment or reaction. 212
   2. Listen to the words only. 212
   3. Listen to the feeling. 213
   4. Reflect the words, but also paraphrase and check for accuracy. 213
   5. Reflect underlying feelings. 214
   6. Begin the process again. 214
Interpretation is the Enemy of Listening 215
The Feedback Loop 216
Interrupting the Feedback Loop 216
Your Personal Filter 217
The Development of Your Filter
   1. Current Situation 218
   2. History 218
   3. Short-Term Goals 218
   4. Long-Term Vision 219
   5. Values and Beliefs 219
   6. Attitude 219
The Speaking Part of Communication 220
The Non-Verbal Portion of “Speaking” 220
A Model of Effective Communication 221
Specific Speech Tools 222
  How to Make an Effective Request 222
   1. A present and focused speaker. 223
   2. A present and focused listener. 223
   3. Terms of fulfillment, including a time element. 223
   4. A response. 224
  How to Make an Effective Promise 224
   1. A present and focused speaker. 225
   2. A present and focused listener. 225
   3. Terms of fulfillment, including a clear time element 225
Dealing with Communication Failure 226
  Why It Is Important to Resolve Communication Failures 227
  How to Address Communication Failures/Conflict 228
Step One: Manage Your Emotions 229
Step Two: Consciously Respond to Conflict 231
   The Spectrum of Typical Conflict Responses 231
Step Three: Problem Solving 233
   1. Prepare Yourself. 233
   2. Establish Rapport and Positivity 234
   3. Listen to Their Story 234
   4. Share Your Story 234
   5. Collaboratively Decide What Needs to be Resolved 234
   6. Create a Plan 235

Homework 238
   Example of Avoiding: Angela 239
   Example of Smoothing: Dave 239
   Example of Forcing: Parker 239
   Example of Arguing: Ed 239
   Example of Compromising: Jane 240
   Example of Compromising: Ms. Jones and Bob Smith 240

Chapter 9
Purpose and Vision 241
   Why Read this Chapter? 241
   Introduction 242
   What Is Purpose? 242
   Creating a Purpose Statement 244
      Part A: Timeline of Your Life 244
      Part B: 14 Reflective Questions 246
      Part C: Values 249
      What is Your Purpose Statement? 250
      Test: How to Tell if Your Purpose is Right for You 251
      How to Use Purpose to Stay on Track and Make Decisions 252
   Create Your Vision 254
      What Is Vision? 254
      Instructions: 254
   Implementing Your Vision 258
      Making Decisions With the Model 259
      Formula for Effective Plan of Action 260
   Homework 260
Chapter 10
The Art of Enrollment

Why Read This Chapter? 263
Enrollment: An Introduction 264
The Definition of Enrollment 265
What Enrollment Is Not 267
Is Enrollment the Same as Selling? 268
Breaking it Down 269
A Specific Model for Enrollment—REALITY 269
Pre-REALITY 270
REALITY, In Depth 271
Step One—(Attain and Maintain) RAPPORT 271
Step Two—ENGAGE 275
Step 3—ASK [the right] Questions 276
Step Four—Really LISTEN 277
Step Five—INTERNALIZE What You Are Hearing 278
Step Six—TEACH the Person How What You Have Will Help 279
Step Seven—Listen for “YES” 279

Homework 280
Example 281

Chapter 11
Trust in our Profession 283

Why Read This Chapter? 283
Trust in the Legal Profession 284
Foundational Thoughts on Trust 284
Simple Trust 284
Accountable Trust 285
Your Current Beliefs About Trust 285
The Basic Behaviors that Build and Break Trust 286
1. Keep Your Agreements 286
2. Communicate Clear Expectations 288
3. Be Accountable 290
4. Be Honest, Upfront and Open 291
5. Acknowledge and Fix Your Mistakes 292
6. Being Respectful Builds Trust 294
7. Be Loyal 296
8. Be Results-Oriented 297
9. Improve Yourself 298
CONTENTS

10. Say What Is So 299
11. Listen 301
12. Trust Others 302
13. Talk About Trust 303
Conclusion 303
Homework 304

Afterword 305

Glossary of Terms 307

Bibliography 313